THE NATIONAL BANK.

The report of the National Bank for 1890 is such an extraordinary document that we cannot allow it to pass unnoticed in these columns. We rocked the cradle of the bank many years ago, supported it when it was friendless in 1876, helped to revive it in 1882, and stood by it till the fatal day when it appealed to the National Government for a suspension of specie payments in January 1885. In 1886, thanks to cautious management and the energy of the Roca Government, which refused to countenance any fresh issues of paper, it began to redeem the errors of 1884, in company with that other banking culprit, now irretrievably doomed, the Provincial Bank. There was a moment when the resumption of specie payments seemed near, when gold fell as low as 9 % premium; but the reins of power changed hands and the National Bank was launched into a management of electoral favouritism and general inflation. Since then the bank has been on the decline, for the public knew that the monies of the bank were at the mercy of politicians eager to make easy fortunes out of speculation, regardless of the bank's interests or the country's risks. The Bank no longer ministered to the requirements of a market, to the wants of farmers, to the needs of manufacturers; it became a paper factory to pay the margins of speculators in lands and stocks. Still, there was balm in Gilead, for the bank, in spite of its ill-advised liberality to a certain class of customers, always kept a gold reserve intact—a reserve amounting to at least thirty million gold dollars. This reserve was a guarantee, but the Fates had decided that it should be thrown away.

A most fatal man entered the Cabinet; he took over the financial portfolio and on the pretext of removing the currency crisis he coolly undertook the task of ruining the bank and the country; imbued with the most absurd notions of political economy, a science he endeavored to prove false, he took over the management of the National Bank into his own hands, seized the gold reserve, threw it on the market, lent out the paper proceeds of the gold sales, and not only jeopardised the bank, intensified the crisis, brought misery on thousands, but actually prepared the overthrow of the Government of which he formed part. Once the bank's gold reserves were sold, the inevitable ensued—the currency fell day by day, fresh paper issues followed, and the crisis reached a climax when gold exceeded 200% and revolution broke out. A pernicious precedent had been established, for the arbitrary manipulation by the government of the bank's gold reserves led to a still more despotic control over the bank's paper reserves; to conciliate the shareholders the Government did not shrink from proposing to Congress to withdraw the paper circulation of the bank and effect that withdrawal as a gift of the nation to the bank. After such ignominious financing, no wonder the shares of the bank crumbled and utter ruin ensued.

It is well to bear the above facts in mind, for the Report of the National Bank for 1890, for some reason or other, does not even mention them. Let it be known that the chief cause of the ruin of the bank is the financial theorist who squandered the bank's gold reserve. The Report, which our readers read in our last issue, contains mere matters of detail. In the light of the antecedents we have given above, showing how the Government assumed the control of the bank's gold and paper reserves and actually promised, as a gift to the bank, at the expense of a whole nation, the withdrawal of its paper issue—need we wonder if the Government also interfered in the grants of paper and gold to individuals; need we be amazed at the utter sacrifice of dignity on the part of the managers and boards of directors, at the utter disorganization of the personnel? No. The Report of the Bank for 1890 may be a banking scandal, unique in the history of the financial world, but let all remember that the primary causes were in the National Government, led astray by an illusionist. Furthermore, the irregularities in the National Bank are a reflex of those in all the State Banks of the Republic. The National Bank is, no doubt, utterly bankrupt, utterly decomposed, not to use a more Saxon term; but let us not forget in our indignation that other banks are quite as guilty and in the same condition. Suppose the National Bank were a savings bank; suppose it had in deposit 100 millions of the earnings of the working people; should we not say that its financial criminality would be enormously intensified? Yet, there are other banks, one particularly, that a large political party are endeavouring to save, far more guilty than the National Bank. We open our eyes at the terrible state of the National Bank, but we wink at the condition of another bank which, after resorting to fradulent issues on one occasion, to patriotic loans on a second, now on a third occasion appeals to the Government for fresh issues of paper to redeem the criminal financing that has reduced it to such straits that, with 120 million of deposits, it has not been able to discount for the last year and cannot face a run for 20 % of its deposits. All these State banks are more or less guilty, but let a spirit of fair-play divide the responsibility and not make a scape-goat of one bank. We need not add that this black picture of the State bank is not a mere accident; in portraying the state of that bank in all its dismal colors, there was an evident intention to impress on the public the rottenness of State banks. We may, therefore, conclude that the report on the working of the National Bank seals for ever the fate of State banks in Argentina.

THE MADERO PORT SUFFERERS.

A large number of our countrymen has been thrown out of employment by the suspension of the port-works. They are all industrious, deserving people, and a movement has been set on foot to pay their passage home to England. For this end a sum of £308 has already been guaranteed, and a further sum of £100 is all that is needed, the total passage-money for the men and their families being £408.

It seems that under the circumstances the British Government can give no aid whatever, and the British Immigration and Benevolent Society considers it impossible to do anything for our poor countrymen.

The only resource is an appeal to the British residents, whose liberality is proverbial. We may observe that the workmen themselves have contributed to the fund as far as their means allowed, and it is simply a question of making up the deficit. The suspension of the works has placed them in a most difficult position.

We shall be glad to receive at this office any donations forwarded for so meritorious a purpose.

IMPORTANT FROM CHILE.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END.

The Nacional of last evening published the following highly important news from Chile:—

Mendoza, 27th.

The foreign Powers refuse to recognise the recent decree of Balmaceda closing several ports, unless he can make it effective by blockade, which he has no ships to do. An English company takes passengers and cargo for all those ports, and its steamers are protected by the British squadron.

The French, Italian and German Ministers have been ordered to act in like manner, and the Diplomatic Corps have resolved to call on the Chilian fleet under Congress to occupy the ports of Lota and Coronel, which Government threatens to close.

The Government troops at Coquimbo and Serena have revolted, not having received their pay.

The French Government will not allow the new war-vessels for Chile to leave France.

Balmaceda having seized the German steamer Roma at Coronel, with cargo of saltpetre, and imprisoned her officers, the German Minister interfered so vigorously that Balmaceda had to dismiss the Governor of Coronel, pay an indemnity, release the officers, and give up the ship and cargo.

The revolutionary army in the North grows in strength daily; there are 12,000 well equipped troops in Tacna, Tarapaca and Antofagasta. The duty on nitrate supplies plenty of money, and the troops are paid in coin. The revenue from nitrate is 1½ million dollars monthly.

It is expected that all the Government troops in the South will go over to the patriots. A grand attack on Santiago is expected before June 1st, when the mandate of Congress will expire.

A formidable opposition to Government has sprung up in the recently elected Congress.

On Sunday night a dynamite bomb was thrown from an adjoining house at the Mint, where Balmaceda lives, but the explosion did no harm. The affair is thought to have been a ruse of the President, as no arrests have been made.

ROSARIO.

(From the "Argentine News")

A concert took place on Saturday last at the workshops of the Central Argentine Railway.

The room was decorated with English, American and Argentine flags, and in front of the platform stood four long tables, at which were seated between 80 and 90 persons. The committee, of which Mr. J. Maldram was secretary, were most assiduous in attention to their guests. The tea-makers were Mesdames De La Haye, Jones, Camp, Selman, Hopper, Barkas, Paget and Calder.

At the tea, which was specially given as an entertainment to Messrs. Lucas, Cook and Russell, we noticed among other guests, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Daniel, Bishop Stirling, Rev. G. and Mrs. Adams, and Mr. Ernest and Miss Eggington.

The Committee issued a general invitations to the children to tea on Monday afternoon, at which no fewer than 64 children were present.

The Locomotive Department of the C.A. Railway may be congratulated upon the great success of the concert. Mrs. Syddall was particularly good in her rendering of Dolly's Revenge, and Mrs. Martin caused a storm of applause by her artistic rendering of Home, Sweet Home, on the violin, and also in the duet in which she was so ably seconded by Miss Pelling. Miss Fisher's song suited the compass of her voice, and she sang very sweetly, as also did Mr. Armstrong. The duet, Huntingtower, was most heartily encored, and in response, Miss Fisher and Mr. Dale sang Friendship. Mr. Worley was director, and Mrs. Worley acted admirably as accompanist.

The following was the programme:—

Pianoforte, Solo, Mrs. Worley.
Song, Romeney Lass, Mr. Armstrong.
Song, Dolly's Revenge, Mrs. Syddall.
Song, The Scout, Mr. J. Monteith Drysdale
Duet, Huntingtower, Miss Fisher and Mr. Dale.
Violin and Piano, Home Sweet Home, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Worley.
Duet, Down the Dark Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Syddall.
Pianoforte, Duet, Mrs. Worley and Miss Pelling.
Song, White Squall, Mr. Armstrong.
Song, Oh, How Delightful, Mrs. Syddall.
Duet, All's Well, Messrs. Armstrong and Calder.
Song, The Old White Hall, Miss Fisher.
Song, When Other Lips, Mr. Syddall.
Violin, Duet, Mrs. Martin and Miss Pelling.
God Save the Queen.

Mr. Fisher kindly placed at the disposal of those attending the concert a special train at 1.30 p.m. for those returning to Fisherton, likewise a special train left for Sunchales and central stations. A tram was also in attendance for those returning to town.

A sum of $130 was handed over to the Hospital.

MONTEVIDEO.

(From the "Montevideo Times.")

Our readers will regret to learn that Yellow Fever has claimed three victims on board the telegraph-ship Viking of the London and Brazilian Telegraph Company. These victims are the Chief Officer, Mr. Sakes; the Purser, Mr. Matthews, and the blacksmith, Mr. Plummer. The fever was contracted in the port of Rio Janeiro and the deaths occurred, we believe, on Tuesday, though we did not hear of the sad occurrence until yesterday. We are unable to give further details, which are, indeed, unknown here, as the Viking has sailed for Cabo Frio, and of course would not in any case have been allowed to touch here without a lengthy quarantine. We understand there are other cases on board, but cannot say so definitely. The victims above named, and especially Mr. Skates, were well-known in this town during the frequent calls of their vessel. The other telegraph ship, the Norseman, remains in charge of the coast at present.

About 11 o'clock on Friday night a shocking murder was committed in a low cafe in Calle Brecha. Lieutenant Hermida, of the 2nd of Infantry, and a picket of men were in search of a deserter named Ciavasco. They found him drinking in the aforesaid cafe, and ordered him to go with them. He pretended to offer no resistance, but when in the street suddenly drew a revolver and fired twice at Lieut. Hermida. The second ball pierced his heart, and he died in a few instants. In the confusion Ciavasco took to his heels, pursued by the soldiers and some policemen. He fired again three times at the latter, but only inflicted a slight wound upon one of them. He was then captured after some resistance, handcuffed, and taken to the barracks where he was placed in irons. Ciavasco is the same deserter who a few weeks ago exchanged some shots with an officer who tried to arrest him, then threatening death to anyone who should take him. He is a young man of about 20, and has deserted twice previously. The victim was only 23 years old and was highly esteemed in his regiment. It is not certain whether the murderer will be tried by civil or military process.

Mr. J. J. Gardiner, the manager of the Midland Railway, who left for a trip to England about the beginning of the month, has returned to town. When he arrived at Santos he found a telegram awaiting him from the Directorate in London asking him to postpone his holiday, as at the present very critical moment concerning the guarantee, it was most desirable that he should be on the spot. He accordingly came back overland and after a trying journey arrived here on Thursday morning. Mr. Jones, interim manager of the line, left Montevideo for Paysandu on Thursday evening. Mr. Gardiner is still in town.

The Executive has forwarded to the Chambers a Message asking, under certain conditions, for the free introduction of wheat intended for sowing. This Message has been occasioned by communications from the Rural Association and various wheat growers, calling attention to the deteriorated quality of the wheat now raised here, and also to the alarming prevalence of the disease known as "smut." It is thought that both these will be obviated by introducing new stock.

The Budget continues to be the preoccupying question in Cabinet Council. Some of our contemporaries have published figures which they assert to represent the proposed reductions, but as nothing whatever official has transpired, and as we know the said figures to be chiefly guesses, we do not think them worth repeating. We understand, however, that all the Ministers have shewn themselves very much alive to the necessity of economies in their respective departments, except that trebly unfortunate functionary the Minister of War. This, if correct, is greatly to be regretted, for it is universally acknowledged that there is no department more costly or less useful, and consequently none in which the pruning knife might and should be more liberally applied. We have even heard it whispered that the obstinacy of the Minister of War in this respect is likely to cause a Cabinet crisis, but we think this is exaggerated. One thing is quite certain, however, namely that public opinion on the question runs high and sooner or later must produce some effect.

BRAZIL.

A CAUTION TO EMIGRANTS.

Rio de Janeiro, April 17.

As many of your readers may be thinking of leaving Buenos Ayres owing to the crisis, it may be well to let them know the true position of affairs here.

There is no actual crisis as yet, but there are a great number of persons out of employment, and salaries are going down, partly owing to men coming from the Argentine Republic and not knowing the high cost of living, being willing to work for what appears to them a good salary, but which in reality is not.

The mil-reis which, with paper at par, would equal 2s., are now only worth thirteen and a half to the pound sterling.

Hotels charge 6 mil-reis a day; boarding-houses, of which there are very few, from 4 to 5 mil-reis. A lunch in town costs at least 3 mil-reis, and all drinks are at least twice as expensive as in Buenos Aires.

The yellow fever is still going on with almost unabated vigour. The returns of deaths are most probably correct as far as regards the hospitals, but they do not include those who die in their homes or on the vessels in port. When, therefore, 40 deaths a day are published from yellow fever, it is safe to assume that the actual number of deaths from fever are from twice to three times as many.

The character of the disease is severe, the mortality being at least 50 %. It is well to remember that former epidemics have run on to the 15th and even to the end of May.

As the Government have been advertising until lately in your paper for engineers and surveyors, I think it ought to be understood that at present the want has been supplied, and that the prospect for engineers is no longer what it was six months ago.

Last night my next-door neighbour at the hotel died of yellow fever, and it was not until a few hours before his death that I knew he had it.

Engineer.

MONTEVIDEO SAILORS' HOME.

The first public entertainment took place last Thursday evening. Over a hundred guests sat down.

Amongst those present were not only a large number of men from the various naval vessels in port, H.M.S.S. Cleopatra and Bramble, the U.S.S. Tallapoosa, etc., but a fair sprinkling of their officers and quite a crowd of ladies and gentlemen, of the English community in Montevideo.

Lieut. Arthur Horseley of H.M.S. Cleopatra presided at the concert, which commenced at 8 o'clock.

In giving an account of this very attractive entertainment we consider the place of honour belongs to the marine Mr. Bassil of H.M.S. Cleopatra, well known as a clever artist both with paint brush and pencil as well as at the piano. To his hand were due the neatly got up programmes and to his skill the musical success of the evening, as he accompanied all the naval singers with a precision and taste rarely surpassed by professional musicians.

The men from H.M.S.S. Cleopatra and Bramble, whose pieces formed the larger part of the numbers, were kindly assisted by contributions from the Misses Miles at the piano, Mr. Miles on the flute filled up, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davies, the Rev. S. Francis, and Mr. D. A. Williams as vocalists.

The overture was capitally played by Bassil, Gilbertson and Hicks, the first mentioned at the piano and the others with violins; and the same trio were also equally successful with the 'Gallop' they contributed at the commencement of the second part.

The Misses Miles, in their pianoforte trio, received well merited applause, the three sisters all playing wonderfully well together and in very effective style, while Miss Miles in her charming solo in the second half of the programme scored a veritable triumph.

Mrs. Lloyd Davies greatly pleased the audience with her well rendered "Ching-a-ring," a capital selection, and Mr. Lloyd Davies, both in the popular "Owl" and the "Three jealous men" was much appreciated.

The Rev. S. Francis, who was suffering from a bad cold, nevertheless rendered his pretty song "Fiddle and!" in a very charming manner. Mr. J. G. Miles' interpretation, on the flute, of Tito Mattei's popular song was much applauded and afforded a very agreeable variety.

Mr. D. A. Williams was very successful in Watson's "Loved and Saved," which was much applauded.

Mr. Hardcastle made the hit of the evening in his character songs.

Amongst the reciters the first place must be claimed as a tie for T. Brehout and T. Gilberston, both of whom are first rate in their different styles, the former being well "on the spot" in his funny Stump Speech and the latter most effective in his special pleading, in fact killing two birds with one stone, and captivating the heart of the doubting Tilly as well as those of his audience. A very first rate recitation was also given by Bombardier W. Barrott. A Christy was very successful in his three songs, but we give the palm to his "Balaclava Charge" in which his fine voice and expressive style were thoroughly appreciated, as demonstrated by the loud applause and the hearty manner his comrades joined in the refrain in praise of "Cardigan the fearless." F. Gilbertson's rendering of Watson's popular "On Guard" was most successful, his even and musical voice showing to great advantage. Mr. J. Couch looked so very happy while he told his audience that "he was going to be mawwied to-day" that many of the crusty old bachelors present declared they didn't believe him, but notwithstanding this, his song was a grand succes. J. Patten's admiration for the young lady who should have wheeled the perambulator was most infectious, and the audience scarce knew which to applaud most, the young lady, the perambulator or the victim, and so ended by applauding all three. Last, but by no means least, we must mention the Whitechapel Masher, capitally interpreted by J. Davis, who mashed the audience to such purpose that even the ladies felt almost inclined to join in the chorus.

Lieut. Arthur J. Horsley, in a few well-spoken words, thanked the ladies and gentlemen who had assisted the Blue Jackets that evening, and after paying a graceful tribute to the initiators of the Sailors' Home, called upon the audience to join heartily in singing "God save the Queen."—Uruguayan News.

CHUBUT.

April 15, 1891.

In the early days of the colony the arrival of a British man-of-war at Port Madryn was a matter of intense interest and importance to the struggling, half-famished, semi-nude settlers; for it meant to them stores of food and raiment, which the generous, kind-hearted commanders generally bestowed on them with no niggard hand. Since prosperity has begun to smile upon these valleys, there has been no need of drawing upon the bounty of the British navy; and, as the ships call as a rule during the busy harvest or threshing season, the public interest has somewhat subsided. The arrival of H.M.S. "Basilisk" in the Bay a week or two ago, however, re-awakened the interest, for Captain Wintz issued a general invitation to the colonists to visit the ship, and Mr. Hill, the manager of the railway, arranged a cheap excursion train for the occasion.

The day was proclaimed a 'red letter' day in the history of Y Wladva—old and young from the length and breadth of the valley were seen from early morn wending their way to Trelew, some on foot, some in high spring waggons, others in jolting, springless carts, while here and there picturesque parties of young men and maidens mounted on fleet-footed steeds were witnessed hurrying to the station.

There was all bustle and rush and mad confusion, a pleasing and unconsciously humorous "get-up," which struck the chord of merriment and joy which lasted the day.

The available coaches of the company were utterly inadequate to carry the number of passengers, so some wheat trucks were requisitioned, and closely packed with live freight. Needless to say this was the "standing joke" of the journey. Arrived at Port Madryn the jolly Jack-tars soon transferred the excursionists on board the "Basilisk." Captain Wintz and officers then entertained at lunch Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Erasmus Jones, Miss Elluned Morgan, Miss Gruffudd, Miss Kidd, Miss Minnie Maud, Mr. Joe Berry Mr. A. Erasmus and Mr. Cunnick. Tea and plum cake were afterwards, by the captain's orders, served on deck to all comers, and were done justice to by the host of hungry ones, upon whose appetites the exhilarating sea-breeze had put an extraordinary edge. Through some kind thoughtfulness of the officers who had been to the valley on a shooting expedition, Mr. Smith, Mr. Ozard, and the Honourable Mr. Murray, a Christy Minstrel entertainment was got up, to the great enjoyment of the people, and the excellent band of the ship discoursed sweet and stirring strains of music at intervals during the day. Guns were fired off by Miss Morgan, Miss Gruffudd and the Belle of Chubut, the pretty niece of the Venerable Wm. Huw Wiliam. Then came the characteristic Welsh "Thank you." Miss Morgan led off the National Anthem, "Hen wead vy nhadan" from the bridge, the people joining in the chorus with electrifying effect. This was followed by a neat little speech by Mr. Hughes Meloch, giving utterance to the heart-felt thanks of the colonists for the kindness, courtesy and consideration with which they had been treated by all, from the commander to the cabin-boy. The soul-stirring strains of the "march of the men of Harlech" burst forth as the time of departure drew near, but the Welsh love of choral singing had not spent itself; the solemn notes of an old Gymric Hymn rose softly on the ear, and gradually swelled into a grand volume of most sublime music. "God Save the Queen" being sung, the task of transhipping the visitors was commenced with Jack tar's usual smartness, the Railway Company's lighter having, by the courtesy of Mr. Hill, been placed at their disposal. It was with no ordinary feelings that one leaned on the bulwarks of the "Basilisk" and watched the lighter with its living cargo make for the pier-head; the sea was calm and smooth as a millpond, scarce a breath rippled the breast of old ocean, and the measured stroke of the many oars fell not to the tune of "pull for the shore boys," but kept solemn time with the divine melody of "Bydd myrdd o ryfeddodau" which was wafted to us over the waters with a softness at once poetic and very touching. The Welsh as a people are among the best choral singers in the world, and these wild, weird, wailing chants in the minor are the outcome not only of religious fervour and devoutness, but of instinctive love of grandeur and sublimity, seldom reached in the major.

Once the last foot had stept ashore, the train was in readiness to start on the return journey. The screech of the "be-off" whistle was the signal for the "Basilisk" to illuminate itself with the electric light, and to turn the search-light upon the train. The gloomy pauby-bwgan under the brilliancy of electricity appeared a veritable haunt of the fairies, and the ship as the distance between us increased seemed like a sparkling gem set in jet. Trelew was reached about half past ten, and every one went his way rejoicing that he had spent a most enjoyable day, thanks to Captain Wintz and his officers.

FOOTBALL.

ST. A.A.C. v. BELGRANO F.C.

The above league match was played at Highfield, Belgrano, on Sunday last, in which the St. Andrew's A.C. came off victorious with 2 goals to 1. Notwithstanding the heavy rain in the morning, the ground was in a fair condition for playing, but the wet caused both teams to turn up short, and a couple of substitutes had to play in each. Belgrano won the toss and chose to play with the wind. Caldwell kicked off for the St. Andrew's, who soon had the game into the Belgrano's quarters, where it was principally kept through the whole game, but owing to the splendid goal-keeping of Flint and the good back play of Bayne and Rivers, the St. Andrew's forwards were unable to score, so that at the call of half-time neither side had scored. With the wind in their favour things looked a bit better for the St. Andrew's, but it was well on in the second half that Lamont sent the ball through from a bit of a scrimmage that took place in front of the Belgrano goal; a second soon followed. Towards the end of the game Hughes and Davis got well away with the ball and scored the only goal for Belgrano. The St. Andrew's had the best combination of the two teams, the forwards working well together, while the backs stopped any inroads made on their goal. For Belgrano Flint played a splendid game, and, with the help of Bayne and Rivers, saved their team many times, while Hughes and Davis made a good many runs down the field, but were only successful once. The following are the teams:—

Belgrano—Goal, Flint; backs, Bayne, Rivers; half-backs, David, Whitworth, Ellison; forwards, Ellison, Stanford, Lane, Hughes, Davis and another.

St. Andrew's—Goal, Carter; backs, Buchanan, Waters; half-backs, Ellis, McDonald, Bruce; forwards, Lamont, Moffat, Caldwell, Morgan, Wier.

In the meantime Major de Barritt will receive with gratitude gifts of sugar or bread (given or sold at a special rate) coffee, meat and soup; with blankets and mattresses, new or second hand; also some tables and wood and towels. Meals of meat, soup and bread are now given at Calle California, esquina San Antonio, for 5 cents, and tickets for bed and breakfast may be obtained for 10 cents at 1594 Calle Brandzen.

The officers of the Salvation Army will call daily at any address for unused food that is fit for consumption. Men labourers can be sent at a day's notice to any address for the day or hour.

YESTERDAY'S RACING.

As was expected, sport at Palermo yesterday ruled meagre, as also was the attendance of the public, in spite of the brilliancy of the weather. Fields were small, and the finishes uninteresting; in fact, there was not a single close race during the day. The only incident worth recording is the double victory of Boqueron, who showed a clean pair of heels to his opponents in the Premios Luchadores and Perseverancia. In the first he was not fancied, his 4 adversaries being formidable foes, but he gave them no quarter, winning with such ease that he was pulled out again, when he repeated his performance. The other races call for no comment.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The news from Chile—see another column—says that the beginning of the end is at hand, and that the patriots will be in Santiago on the 1st of June. The supposed attempt to blow up Balmaceda is believed to have been merely a trick of the Chilian Czar himself, as no harm was done.

An evening colleague declares that President Pellegrini has refused a sporting offer of £10,000,000 from European money bags, to start the Unique Bank. Conditions too pound-of-fleshish we suppose.

Operations to raise Spanish galleons with millions on board, which sank off Montevideo in the last century, will be commenced next week. The concessionaire is Don Joseph Madariaga. It seems a foolish enterprise.

We beg to thank Mrs. J. J. Byrne, of Campana, for her generous gift of a sack of clothes for the Naposta sufferers.

The Committee of Saint Andrew's Scotch School, with the view of utilising their central premises for the benefit of those who may be anxious to devote their evenings to the study of Spanish, French, English and shorthand, have arranged for the opening of classes for the teaching of these subjects by competent masters. Those who desire to profit by the opportunity thus considerately afforded by the Committee are referred to our advertisement columns for particulars.

To-morrow, May 1st, being the Festival of Saint Philip and Saint James, the Apostles, there will be a celebration of Holy Communion in St. John's Anglican Church at half-past eight in the morning.

Respecting the new Dictionary of Statistics, by our editor, the "Scottish Geographical Magazine" has the following:—

"This is the first part of what promises to be a work of reference of the highest value to geographers and to all who, by choice or by necessity, desire to obtain a knowledge of the world's trade, general state and progress. The principal article in this part is that on Agriculture, covering nearly fifty-two pages and affording statistical tables such as are likely to meet the requirements of most students. Other articles are on Aerolites, Age, Alcohol, Amphitheatres, Anatomy, Animals, Anthropometry. These are all more or less full and instructive, and should future numbers attain to the same standard as this, the first part, no library will be complete without the work. It is clearly printed, and is accompanied by one plate. The price is very moderate."

The Young Men's Society of the Scotch Church begins its meetings to-night at 8 o'clock.

In Paris the news of the speedy return of the crinoline has been earnestly reported. The excitement about this sensational topic became so intense that the editor of the Figaro thought it his duty to send one of the staff to the well-known dressmaker, Felix, to investigate into the truth of the same. Fortunately Mons. Felix was able to inform the interviewer of the entire untruth of the tidings.

There is an important letter lying at our office for Mr. John Ennis, Civil Engineer, who recently arrived in this country.

Telegrams from Rosario say that the Judge and the Editor quarrel up there is not over yet, though the Municipio is again at work, and the embargo on it has been raised by the Superior Court. This has so enraged Judge Alvarez, who shut it up, that he has written an insulting letter to the editor, who will probably invite his worship to taste "the wild freshness of morning" on "the field of honour." Good Rosarinos have been struck dumb by the National Bank scandal; there are lots of the shares held up there.

A letter from Rio, which we publish in another column, shows what shocking ravages the yellow fever is making there, and how the authorities stop at nothing to conceal the fact. The deaths from the epidemic are probably fifty per cent of the whole mortality. It is, indeed, fortunate for this sorely-tried country that the season is so far advanced, otherwise pestilence might easily be added to its woes by importation from Brazil.

The wealthy Jackson family at Montevideo are going to build a palace for the new Bishop of that city. Mr. John Jackson has bought for this purpose the splendid site at the corner of Calles Cerro and 25 de Mayo.

We have been favoured with such a number of letters on the subject of Major Barritt, soup-kitchens and the relief of the poor generally, that we are quite unable, much to our regret, to find space to publish them; and the writers, therefore, must kindly hold us excused, satisfied that the good cause is progressing.

"Et tu Brute!" The Cordoba Free Bank, the greatest sinner of them all, is now making an effort to free itself from the Free Banking Act and recover its freedom of action. This is another notable sign of the times. All the banks in the provinces will so

The topic of conversation in the Bolsa to-day was Messrs. Tornquist and Bunge's projects for the liquidation of the National Bank, reorganization of the Provincial Bank, and starting of a new bank to be styled the "Banco de la Republica Argentina." In general the projects met with a fair share of support, but it was noted that the National Bank shareholders were not over enthusiastic in this regard, although they did not go the length of openly condemning the scheme. The principal features are as follows :—

The "Banco de la Republica Argentina" will be a joint-stock concern, with the usual right to effect operations in discounts, deposits, mortgages, emission, etc. Its capital will be 60 millions of national dollars, in shares of 100 $/n each, divided into six series, of which the first five will enjoy equal privileges and be subject to same obligations. Thirty millions will be allotted to the private or ordinary shareholders of the National Bank, and the remaining 30 millions offered to subscription. The bank will have sole right of emission, but be limited to an emission of 50 million gold dollars, with obligation to hold in coined gold a sum at least equal to 50 % of its notes in circulation. Government and judicial deposits must all be made in this bank, and 7 % of the profits must be set aside to form a reserve fund. It will be authorized to liquidate the National Bank, applying the assets to the payment of the deposits, etc., placing the balance to the credit of the shareholders and the fund for withdrawing the National Bank issue. The board of directors will be composed of 15 members and five substitutes of whom eight at least must be Argentines, and the board will have its president and vice-president.

As to the reorganization of the Provincial Bank, it is based upon the agreement of a certain number of the principal depositors, consulted on the point, to take shares against cheques on the deposits, forming in this way, and in agreement and unison with the Government, a joint-stock concern. The shareholders will have the first pick of the "cartera" to the amount of the capital they subscribe, and for the balance of deposits obligations would be issued bearing 7 or 8 % interest, payable quarterly, and 10 % to 20 % amortization, guaranteed by the remainder of the "cartera" or assets, and by the Provincial and National Governments. These obligations would be furthermore received as cash for all arrears due to either the Provincial Bank or Mortgage Bank, or for any arrears of taxes due to the Provincial Government, and to the extent of 15 % for the service of bills in the Provincial Bank. The Government will be entitled to name a certain number of directors and one or two syndics. This, with one or two minor provisions for the withdrawal of emission and the "pagares" held by the Caja de Conversion, forms the basis of the project.

The following sales of shares, etc., were effected in the Montevideo «Centro Comercial» yesterday :—

We take the following from a late exchange :—

«The Hamburgische Boersenhalle publishes the following telegram from the Banco Hipotecario de la Provincia de Buenos Aires :—' We regret not to be in a position at the present moment to pay the coupon due on 1st April on our Six per Cent. Gold Mortgage Bonds, Series E.'—Reuter.»

The Mendoza Legislature was opened yesterday by the Governor, who said in his Message that the vineyards would realise $8,000,000, while the value of the imports into the province would not exceed $3,000,000. The service of the loan had been made only to the end of June 1890, the high premium on gold having rendered it impossible to make any further payment.

Messrs. Luis Godoy and Co. sold yesterday the house Calle Belgrano 3980 for $17,000, the purchaser being Mr. A. Magaldi.

Mr. V. S. Lobato sold yesterday the following properties :—

Small house, old building, in Calle Defensa, No. 1124, measuring 11⅓x18 varas, for $10,350 ; buyer Mr. Fortunato Martinez.

A piece of ground with old building in Calle Peru, measuring 15.37x37 varas, for $15,800 ; buyer Mr. B. Azzeno.

The following were the prices current in the meat and produce markets yesterday :—

	$/n	$/n
Special bullocks, meat and tallow	25.00	to 35.00
First pick, do. do.	16.00	22.00
Second pick, do. do.	13.00	15.00
Store pigs	4.00	5.00
Bullock hides	9.00	11.50
Cowhides	5.50	6.50
Calves of one year and upwards	8.00	10.00
Ditto sucklings	4.00	6.00

The movement in the Central Produce Market yesterday, April 28th, was as follows :—

Arrivals : 83 wagons with 440,165 kilos of wheat and 45,120 kilos of flax. 3 kilos of salted horseh ides and 306,501 kilos of wheat.

The «Sala del Once» Committee have sent to the Finance Minister a long note on the subject of the stock of wheat in the country. We extract the following figures :—

Stock of Wheat.	Bags.
In this city's mills and deposits	300,000
West of Buenos Aires	1,000,000
South do.	500,000
Chubut and Patagones	100,000
Santa Fe	2,200,000
Entre Rios	600,000
Total	4,700,000

Stock of Flour.	Bags.
Capital and province of Buenos Aires	200,000
Santa Fe	300,000
Total	500,000

The probable consumption in this city is 2,000 bags per day ; province of Buenos Aires the same ; and in the Interior 4,000. This consumption would leave, in the remaining months of the year, 1,380,000 bags of wheat for export, and the Minister's own calculations show that the figures are not exaggerated.

The Government Notary in Chief is doubtful whether he can legally issue leases made by the Land and Colonies Office under Law of March last for public lands, until they are first signed by the Minister of the Interior, to whom this knotty point of red tape has been submitted for decision.

A correspondent under the pseudonym of "Nemo," writes to say that he considers it the bounden duty of the whole commercial community to strengthen the hands of the Government by presenting a petition to Congress before it has time to do any mischief.

Our evening colleague El Nacional makes the important statement that President Pellegrini has declared his intention of declining all offer of foreign capital in the solution of the banking question, and furthermore that the Government had already declined the 50 million of gold dollars offered by English capitalists. It is needless to say that the cause of this graceful aversion is connected with the conditions coupled with the offer, and it is not based upon principle, as some suppose.

Exchange continues weak 48 d., 5.04 francs and 4.05 marks being the rates quoted. Very little exchange is offered.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no quer a darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas l stim duras sanan facilmente, y se ha en cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriend las a la tijera.

Pueden Vds. darle la publicidad que gusten.

S. S. S.
